

Recommended Resources

- The Case for Easter, by Lee Strobel (Zondervan)

A short but fact-packed book featuring interviews with scholars on the evidence that Jesus rose from the dead. It's inexpensive enough to give away to friends and neighbors during Easter season.

- The Case for the Resurrection of Jesus, by Gary Habermas and Michael Licona (Kregel)

Two scholars put the facts concerning the resurrection into everyday language in this award-winning volume. Addresses common objections by skeptics.

- The Resurrection of Jesus: A New Historiographical Approach, by Michael Licona (IVP Academic)

A technical and in-depth treatment of the historical evidence for the resurrection, based on Licona's doctoral research on the topic.

- The Final Days of Jesus, Andreas Köstenberger and Justin Taylor (Crossway)

Helpful guide to what happened during Passion Week, featuring chronological account, insightful commentary, charts and maps.

- The Resurrection of the Son of God, by N.T. Wright (Fortress Press)

Popular scholar examines why Christianity began and how it took shape the way it did, focusing on the empty tomb of Jesus and his post-resurrection appearances.

- The Case for the Real Jesus, by Lee Strobel (Zondervan)

Chapters deal with the "minimal facts approach" to the resurrection as well as why the resurrection wasn't an idea copied from pagan religions. Includes interview with resurrection scholar Michael Licona.

- Jesus' Resurrection: Fact or Figment? Edited by Paul Copan and Ronald K. Tacelli (IVP Academic)

Here's a lively and provocative debate between Christian philosopher William Lane Craig and atheist New Testament scholar Gerd Lüdemann.

- Confident Faith: Building a Firm Foundation for Your Beliefs, by Mark Mittelberg (Tyndale)

A popular-level book that presents wide-ranging evidence for the Christian faith, drawing from science, history, philosophy, archaeology, information related to the Bible, and religious experience.

For information on how your church can run a four-week campaign related to the "Son of God" movie (from which we saw a clip at the outset of the simulcast), go to: www.outreach.com/sonofgod

#